NEWSLETTER
March 2019

March brings on some cooler weather and hopefully some rain. It is a busy time of year with lots of things on in the local area. There will be a Vintage Fair & Fashion Parade held in Aberdeen on 31 March, details on the back page. In April we will have Easter and Anzac Day, then on Sunday 28th April, Aberdeen has its fabulous Quilt Affair. Mark that on your calendar as a 'must do'. The Local Studies Group have been working hard, there will soon be some more story boards in our parks highlighting some of Aberdeen's fabulous history. They are also still looking for photos of old buildings, events or people of our town. The meatworks, workers, trucks and trains were all apart of who we were and what Aberdeen is proud of. If you have any old crumpled black & whites in an album bring them to the Library on Friday 29th or let one of the volunteers know and we can come and see you. I hope you enjoy your lunch and the movie.
